The Speakers Believe That Despite Ad verse Criticism the Cause He Champions is Gaining.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.-The National Civil Service Reform League met in annual session here to-day. The following are extracts from the annual address by its president, Hon. George William Curtis, of New York. The speaker began with the statement as to the explicit pledges of the republican platform in the last national campaign, and a reiteration of these pledges by Harrison to preserve and extend civil service reform in letter and spirit. The long address is nearly all devoted to pledges have been fulfilled. As a signboard to show in what direction he was going, the speaker pointed out that during the first five months of the present administra-tion. The vote of Glendive shows a democratic gain of 40 votes over last fall and all indications point to the election of the entire county ticket with two exceptions. The democrats claim Dawson county by from 100 to 150 majority. The state senator and representative are sure winners.

HELENA, MONTANA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 2, 1889. CORNER IN OCTOBER PORK. horts Trying to Get Even With a Ne York Firm. CHICAGO, Oct. 1 -Rumors of a corner in October pork which have been flying around for several days had a certain color given them this morning, when an injunction was asked restraining the board of trede from issuing certificates declaring pork smoked in October was merchantable and standard. The complainant is W. S. Wallace, of Sawyer, Wallace & Co, New York. Wallace avers that he has contracts for large amounts of October Pork; that under the rule, as it now stands, pork packed during this month is not deliverable until it has remained in cold storage thirty days, and that men who have sold complainant October pork, being short, are seeking by this means to fill their contracts. On behalf of the defendants it is admitted this pork must remain in cold storage thirty days, but they contend that it is deliverable on contracts, and declared that to rule otherwise was to inflict a hardship on the "shorts" because of the complainant's corner in October pork. Judges Tuley and Collins, before whom the matter was taken, have it under advisement.
